TRANSPORTATION

Taxi

A taxi-cab is the most convenient but expensive mode of transportation. The meter in the taxi-cab will indicate how much you need to pay. In Canada it is customary, but not compulsory to tip the driver, and typically this is 10– 15% of the fare.

BC Transit

When using the public bus it is advised to refer to www.bctransit.com/regions/cfv/, www.translink.ca, www.google.com/transit, or call Translink 604-953-3333 to help plan your route and to know the bus schedule. To ride the bus you will need

Walking

To cross a street you need to be at a street corner or a crosswalk (wide white lines in the middle of the road). As a pedestrian, you must obey traffic lights as well or you face the possibility of receiving a fine called ‘jaywalking’.

West Coast Express

This is a train service Monday to Friday between Mission and Vancouver. To see the full schedule visit www.translink.ca. The station is located at 33200 North Railway Avenue.

Driving In BC

Motor vehicle drivers drive on the right side of the road, have a license and insurance to drive in British Columbia

For more details visit www.icbc.com, 1-33498 Bevan Ave, Abbotsford, BC or call 1-888-715-7775.

Bicycle

Bicyclist must obey all the same rules as car drivers but you do not need a license. You must wear a helmet and where designated, ride in the bike lane (not the sidewalk)

SOCIAL INSURANCE

In order to work or apply for any government programs and benefits in Canada you need a social insurance number (SIN). The federal government will deliver you a nine digit number from Service Canada.

Who can apply:

Anyone can apply for a SIN but children under the age of 12 years need their parents or legal guardian to apply for them. For more details please visit www.servicecanada.gc.ca/eng/sin/apply/proof.shtml

If you do not have two years of non-learner driving experience - you will need to go through the graduated licensing program.

British Columbia Identification card (BCID)

To obtain an BCID you must be 12 years old or older. Also, an individual under 19 years of age must have a parent or legal guardian at the driver licensing office to give consent.

How to apply:

To acquire a BCID you need to go to a driver licensing office with accepted ID and pay the fee for the card.

In case of car accident:

Always remain at the scene and exchange insurance information with other driver.

The Charter of Rights and Freedoms

Canada guarantees political and civil rights for everyone in Canada under the Charter of Rights and Freedoms (the charter). These principles include people's fundamental freedoms, democratic rights, mobility rights, legal rights, equality rights, language rights, and clauses and provisions.

SCHOOLS

In Canada all children have the opportunity to attend school. The Canadian school system offers public and private institutions for schooling. For further details about BC education visit the Ministry of Education website <http://www2.gov.bc.ca>

Preschool:

Preschool is for children under the age of 5 years. A program called Strong Start BC provides these services free of charge.

Elementary and Secondary School:

Children from 5 to 17 years of age need to go to school and BC offers free public schools to support them. Parents have the option to home school their child and register them for private school (for an additional fee) as well. When a child turns 5 years old they can attend Kindergarten (K), the first level of elementary school. Also, children generally attend the closest public school to their home. Mission is School District 75 and offers many schools, please visit the Ministry of education website to locate a school near you. Additionally, schools have a settlement worker in schools (SWIS) that assist children new to Canada.

For information about the schools in your area; contact Mission School District at Mission Public Schools 33046 Fourth Ave. Mission, BC V2V 1S5 Tel: 604-826-6286

You can also contact the Settlement Worker in Schools (SWIS) on 604-826-3634.

Settlement Workers in Schools provide settlement support to our immigrant students and families who are new to the community, to ease their integration. We guide our families and provide them with skills to independently navigate through the resources and services available to them in Mission.
